on D.W.'s neck. These brutal actions crushed D.W.'s face into the concrete floor of his cell, making it difficult for him to breathe and causing him to gasp for air.

- 20. D.W. sought medical attention for the injuries he suffered as a result of this incident. When his mother visited him, she noticed bruising around his wrists where the guards had tightened the handcuffs in an attempt to deliberately cause D.W. unnecessary pain.
- 21. Upon information and belief, and based on interviews with over thirty youths who were recently held in the Juvenile Detention Center, such physical abuse is also inflicted with regularity on other putative class members.

CAUSES OF ACTION

51. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all of the above factual allegations to support the following claims:

COUNT I

52. The conditions of confinement at the Juvenile Detention Center and the Defendant's deliberate indifference to those conditions, considered both individually and in their totality, constitute cruel and unusual punishment and a denial of due process in violation of Plaintiffs' rights under the Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as enforced through 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Count II

53. Defendant's refusal to protect children from harm, otherwise keep them physically safe and secure and free from unconstitutional practices like excessive room confinement, excessive use of force, arbitrary and punitive disciplinary practices and excessive use of restraints violates Plaintiffs' constitutional rights under the Eighth Amendment and the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, as enforced through 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
